Medicaid

Medicaid offers health care coverage for children, pregnant women, people with disabilities, people 65 and older, and some adults caring for children. It helps with bills for doctors, hospitals, nursing homes and prescriptions ordered by a doctor. Children who get Medicaid will also be in the Texas Health Steps program.

CHIP Perinatal Coverage

The CHIP perinatal coverage offers prenatal care to pregnant women who cannot get Medicaid and do not have other health coverage. Benefits may include up to 20 prenatal visits, prescriptions ordered by a doctor, costs of giving birth, two doctor visits for the mom after the baby is born, and regular checkups, vaccines and prescriptions ordered by a doctor for the baby.

Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)

CHIP is for children ages 18 and younger. It is an insurance program for families who earn too much money to get Medicaid but cannot pay for private insurance.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

SNAP helps families buy food. SNAP benefits are given through the Lone Star Card. This is a plastic card that is used like a debit card.

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

TANF helps families with children ages 18 and younger pay for things like food, clothing and housing. TANF benefits are given through the Lone Star Card. This is a plastic card that is used like a debit card. Learn more at YourTexasBenefits.com.

Healthy Texas Women

This program offers women's health and family planning services at no cost to eligible women in Texas. WIC clients already meet the income eligibility requirements for Healthy Texas Women. Services include pregnancy testing, birth control methods, tests for breast and cervical cancers, screening and treatment for sexually transmitted infections, postpartum depression, cholesterol, diabetes, high blood pressure and more.

Healthy Texas Women also offers clients additional postpartum services that focus on major health conditions like mental health, heart disease and substance use disorders. For more information, visit HealthyTexasWomen.org.

The WIC Program receives funds from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). USDA policies prohibit discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-3027.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling

(866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:

1. mail:

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; or

2. fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or

3. email: Program.Intake@usda.gov
